2 Signatures

- I authorize T. Rowe Price to change the name on my account(s) as requested in Section 1.
- You must sign in both your former and new name to authorize this change.

Checkwriting: If you have checkwriting services on one or more of your accounts, all owners on the mutual fund account with checkwriting must sign, even if only one name has been changed. A new checkbook will be mailed to the address on the account. If you are also updating your address, there will be a 15-day hold before sending the new checkbook. Check the box below if checkwriting applies.

- One or more accounts affected have checkwriting services.

By signing this form, I agree that:

- This applies to any other identically registered T. Rowe Price fund (Fund) checking account(s) I open later, except Brokerage Advantage.
- If I am subject to IRS backup withholding, I may write checks only on money market fund accounts.
- The Fund reserves the right to change, revoke, or close any checking account.
- The signatures are authentic, and only one owner is required to sign checks. For organizations, I have submitted an original or certified resolution authorizing the individuals with legal capacity to sign and act on behalf of the organization.
- Negotiation of a check is a mutual fund redemption, and all conditions on redemptions set forth in the Fund's prospectus apply.
- This agreement is governed by Maryland law.

Plan participants: If you are a participant in a Money Purchase Pension, Profit Sharing, Individual 401(k) or ERISA 403(b) plan, your plan administrator can update your name and/or address on troweprice.com/psw. If you prefer to submit this form, the plan administrator must sign below.

A signature guarantee is required if:

- You do not have a legal document that reflects your name change.
- You intend to redeem to your new address within 15 days.
