The path to global high yield is clear

Higher yield

Aiming for higher yields than traditional fixed income by investing in high-yield bond opportunities.

240+ fixed income professionals<sup>1</sup>

The breadth and depth of our global research provides a critical information edge.

Monthly income

Aims to generate a steady stream of income in the form of coupon payments.

Total return

Reinvesting the income can significantly boost investment returns over the long term via the power of compounding.

Truly global opportunity set

Helps us take full advantage of divergent credit cycles and performance variations between countries, regions and sectors.

ESG integration

Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) factors are integrated into the investment process<sup>2</sup>.

Deep experience

T. Rowe Price has been managing high yield portfolios for over 30 years.

Low default rate

Our clients have benefited from our track record of consistently low defaults vs the global market average.

<sup>2</sup> ESG considerations form a part of our overall research process, helping us alongside other factors to identify investment opportunities and manage investment risk. At T. Rowe Price this is known as ESG integration. However, we may conclude that other attributes of an investment outweigh ESG considerations when making investment decisions.
