Risks - The following risks are materially relevant to the fund (refer to prospectus for further details):

Country risk (China) - all investments in China are subject to risks similar to those for other emerging markets investments. In addition, investments that are purchased or held in connection with a QFII licence or the Stock Connect program may be subject to additional risks. Currency risk - changes in currency exchange rates could reduce investment gains or increase investment losses.

Emerging markets risk - emerging markets are less established than developed markets and therefore involve higher risks. Small and mid-cap risk - stocks of small and mid-size companies can be more volatile than stocks of larger companies. Stock connect risk - the fund may invest in certain Shanghai-listed and Shenzhen-listed securities ("Stock Connect Securities") through the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect respectively ("Stock Connect"). This mechanism carries higher risk. Style risk - different investment styles typically go in and out of favour depending on market conditions and investor sentiment. Volatility risk - the performance of the fund has a risk of high volatility.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

General fund risks - to be read in conjunction with the fund specific risks above. Capital risk - the value of your investment will vary and is not guaranteed. It will be affected by changes in the exchange rate between the base currency of the fund and the currency in which you subscribed, if different. Equity risk - in general, equities involve higher risks than bonds or money market instruments. ESG and Sustainability risk - may result in a material negative impact on the value of an investment and performance of the fund. Geographic concentration risk - to the extent that a fund invests a large portion of its assets in a particular geographic area, its performance will be more strongly affected by events within that area. Hedging risk - a Fund's attempts to reduce or eliminate certain risks through hedging may not work as intended. Investment fund risk - investing in funds involves certain risks an investor would not face if investing in markets directly. Management risk - the investment manager or its designees may at times find their obligations to a fund to be in conflict with their obligations to other investment portfolios they manage (although in such cases, all portfolios will be dealt with equitably). Operational risk - operational failures could lead to disruptions of fund operations or financial losses.

Effective 2 November 2021, the name of the fund will change from Asian ex-Japan Equity Fund to Responsible Asian ex-Japan Equity Fund. The fund will then promote environmental and social characteristics through the investment manager's avoidance of sectors or companies, whose activities may be considered harmful to the environment and/or society through the application of its proprietary socially responsible screen (exclusion list). Please see the prospectus for more information.
