Investment Objective & Strategy

The fund seeks long-term growth of capital through investments primarily in the common stocks of companies located (or with primary operations) in the emerging market countries of Europe.

Favor companies with attractive valuations and earnings that are growing faster than their local and regional peers.

Identify themes/trends and industries that are likely to experience high future growth.

Securities are chosen based on bottom-up research supported by a top-down perspective.

Country allocation is driven by stock selection.

The Fund's total return figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any.

[(3)]Investors should note that the Fund's short-term performance is highly unusual and unlikely to be sustained.

[(4)]Effective June 1, 2010, the benchmark for the Emerging Europe Equity Fund was changed to MSCI Emerging Markets Europe Index. Prior to June 1, 2010, the benchmark was the MSCI Emerging Markets Europe and Middle East Index. Historical benchmark representations have not been restated.

The fund(s) may have other share classes available that offer different investment minimums and fees. See the prospectus for details.

Risks: Investing in Emerging Europe: The European financial markets have experienced increased volatility due to concerns about economic downturns, political unrest, war, military conflict, economic sanctions, rising government debt levels, energy crises, and public pandemics, and these events may continue to significantly affect all of Europe. The economies and markets of European countries are often connected and interdependent, and events in one country in Europe can have an adverse impact on other European countries. Emerging markets: Investments in emerging market countries are subject to greater risk and overall volatility than investments in the U.S. and other developed markets. See the prospectus for more detail on the fund's principal risks.
