INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth.

Invest primarily in companies we expect to generate a majority of revenue from the development, advancement, and use of technology.

Focus on the common stocks of what we consider to be leading technology companies around the world.

Holdings can range from small, unseasoned companies developing new technologies to blue chip firms with established track records of developing and marketing technology.

BENEFITS AND RISKS

We believe that companies benefiting from rapid advances in technology offer significant opportunities for long-term growth, which is often reflected in rapidly rising stock prices.

The fund is less diversified than stock funds investing in a broader range of industries and, therefore, could experience significant volatility.

Any foreign holdings could be affected by declining local currencies or adverse political or economic events.

INVEST WITH CONFIDENCE®

Definitions

Beta: A measure of market risk of an investment option that shows how responsive the investment is to a given market index, such as the Standard & Poor's 500 Index. By definition, the beta of the benchmark is 1.00. An investment with a beta of 1.10 is expected to perform 10% better than the index in up markets and 10% worse in down markets. Usually, higher betas represent riskier investments. Figures are calculated using monthly data and are net of fees.
