INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The fund seeks a high level of income exempt from federal income taxes.

Invests at least 80% of its total assets in investment-grade bonds rated from AAA to BBB by at least one national rating agency or rated the equivalent by T. Rowe Price if other ratings are not available.

May invest up to 20% of the fund's total assets in non-investment-grade bonds.

May buy securities of any maturity, and the weighted average maturity is expected to exceed 15 years but may be less when, in the judgment of the portfolio manager, a shorter weighted average maturity is in the best interest of the fund.

BENEFITS AND RISKS

Income level should generally be above that of money market and short- and intermediate-term bond funds, but its share price will fluctuate more.

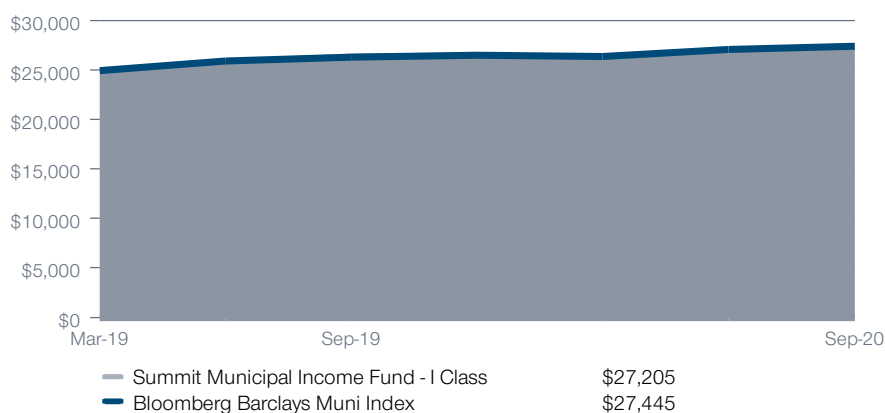

By focusing on investment-grade securities, credit risk should be reduced. Income dividends should be exempt from federal income taxes, and your state may not tax that portion of each fund's income earned on the state's own obligations (if any).

Lower expenses enable the funds to pay higher dividends.

Subject to the usual risks of fixed-income investing, including interest rate risk, credit risk, and political risk.

CUMULATIVE RETURNS

Growth of $25,000

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. To obtain the most recent month-end performance, visit troweprice.com. Consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses carefully before investing. For a prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this and other information, call 1-855-405-6488 or visit troweprice.com. Read it carefully. The T. Rowe Price fund shares the portfolio of an existing fund (the original share class of the fund is referred to as the "investor class"). The total return figures for this I Class have been calculated using the performance data of the Investor Class up to the inception date of the I Class (3/1/19) and the actual performance results of the I Class since that date. Because the I Classes are expected to have lower expenses than the Investor Classes, the I Class performance, had it existed over the periods shown, would have been higher. The average annual total return figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any. The fund(s) may have other share classes available that offer different investment minimums and fees. See the prospectus for details.

Definitions

Beta: A measure of market risk of an investment option that shows how responsive the investment is to a given market index, such as the Standard & Poor's 500 Index. By definition, the beta of the benchmark is 1.00. An investment with a beta of 1.10 is expected to perform 10% better than the index in up markets and 10% worse in down markets. Usually, higher betas represent riskier investments. Figures are calculated using monthly data and are net of fees.
