INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The fund seeks to provide, consistent with modest price fluctuation, a high level of income exempt from federal income taxes by investing primarily in short- and intermediate-term investment-grade municipal securities.

Invests primarily in short- and intermediate-term municipal securities.

Weighted average maturity normally ranges from two to five years and is not expected to exceed five years.

The fund may invest in bonds whose income must be included in the calculation of the alternative minimum tax.

BENEFITS AND RISKS

On an after-tax basis, the yield of most municipal bond funds is attractive compared with yields on taxable bond funds.

Dividends from the fund are exempt from federal income tax. Some income may be subject to state and local taxes and the federal alternative minimum tax. Capital gains, if any, are generally taxable.

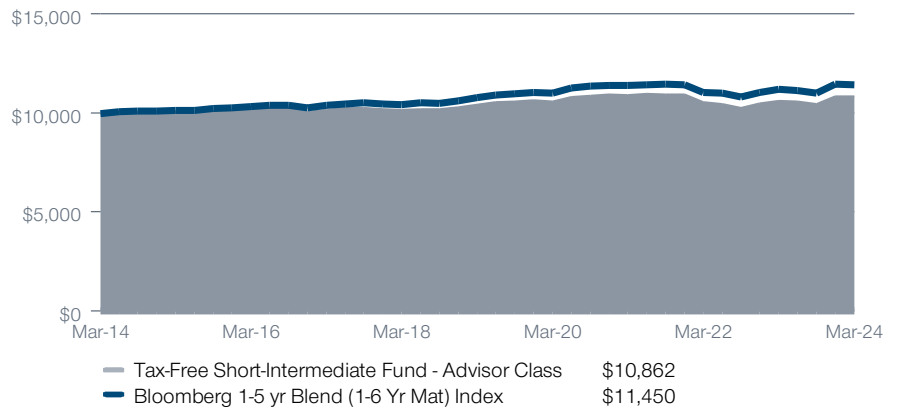

Yield and share price will vary with interest rate changes.

If interest rates rise from current levels, bond fund total returns will decline and may even turn negative in the short term.

There is also credit risk that the fund seeks to control by investing primarily in municipal securities in the four highest credit categories.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. To obtain the most recent month-end performance, visit troweprice.com. The T. Rowe Price Tax-Free Short-Intermediate Fund - Advisor Class shares the portfolio of an existing fund (referred to as the "investor class") that began operations on December 23, 1983. Total return figures for the class have been calculated using the performance data of the investor class up to the Advisor Class's inception date and the actual performance results of the Advisor Class since that date. Performance results of the investor class have not been adjusted to reflect the 12b-1 fee associated with the Advisor Class; had this fee been included, performance would have been lower. The average annual total return figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any.

The fund(s) may have other share classes available that offer different investment minimums and fees. See the prospectus for details.
