^Net annual returns reflect the deduction of a 3% annual wrap fee which is the maximum anticipated wrap fee deducted from the gross composite returns. Actual fees may vary. Gross returns reflect the fees and expenses of the respective underlying mutual funds but do not reflect any wrap fees. Returns include reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any.

An investor's actual account returns may differ from the portfolio returns shown due to decisions made by the program sponsor, including a selection of funds and/or share classes. The investor's advisor may also charge a fee. If these fees were deducted from the returns shown, the returns would be lower.

Risks: All investments are subject to risk, including possible loss of principal. The model portfolios are subject to the risks of the underlying mutual funds utilized in the model. Diversification does not assure a profit or protect against loss in a declining market.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The Funds' total return figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any.

[^]The T. Rowe Price Fund shares the portfolio of an existing fund (the original share class of the fund referred to as the "investor class"). The total return figures for the I Class shares have been calculated using the performance data of the investor class up to the inception date of the I Class (shown above) and the actual performance results of the I Class since that date. Because the I Classes are expected to have lower expenses than the Investor Classes, the I Class performance, had it existed over the periods shown, would have been higher.

¹The Investor Class inception on September 14, 2015.
